Go to the Wilderness! Each year, as we start our Lenten Journey, many of us struggle with the question of what do for our Lenten observance. Our basic Lenten task is to allow God more space in our lives so that God may work through us. Perhaps the real question we should be asking is: What is taking up too much space in my life? Our other important Lenten task is to clear away any barriers that we have placed between God and us.

We desperately need to create a quiet place in our hearts and space in our life styles. Without that quiet place and empty space in our life, we are living in a troubled and dangerously restless atmosphere. Our need for inner quiet and space is a "desperate need." Otherwise, God can not, will not enter in. When we allow space and emptiness to become a part of our lives, we are indeed heading into the wilderness. Peace! Fr. Vella
