Retirement Fund for Archdiocesan Priests

This weekend, May 15-16 our Parish has been asked to support a special appeal for the Retirement Fund for Archdiocesan priests. It is fitting to remember, in a very special way, our retired priests of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles to assure that they do not have to worry about their retirement years. These men have been sent to us by the Spirit to lead us in the way of prayer and in celebrating the sacraments, to guide us, counsel us and to forgive, reconcile us.

Most Catholics are very supportive of their parish priests and we ask you to pray for our retired priests and for those men now considering the vocation to the priesthood and those about to be ordained. We also ask that you express your commitment to support our retired priests by prayerfully determining the amount you are able to contribute in support of our priests. Please give as generously as you can next weekend to the 2010 Special Appeal for the Retirement Fund for Archdiocesan Priests.

The Ascension of the Lord - May 15-16

The Feast of the Ascension of the Lord, Thursday May 13, will be observed today at all Masses, May 16, the Seventh Sunday of Easter. It is a Holy Day of Obligation. The Saturday, May 15 Vigil Mass at 4:00 p.m. will also cover that obligation.

Farewell Blessing

In the Hebrew scriptures the "farewell blessing" is a fairly common way to end the story of the lives of the great figures in Israel's faith. The farewell blessings of Jacob, Moses and David are particularly notable. At the end of Luke's Gospel, we have a "farewell blessing" by Jesus. It is the only time that Jesus is described as giving a blessing to his disciples. However, Jesus' farewell is different. Unlike Jacob, Moses and David, who gave this blessing at the time of their deaths, Jesus bestows his blessing as he prepares to enter into new and glorious life seated at the right hand of God in heaven. His blessing, like that of his predecessors, is meant to give them strength and courage. But it also has another purpose: it prepares them to be sent out on mission. In this way, it is a precursor to the dismissal blessing we receive at the end of every Mass. Yes, the grace of God's blessing strengthens us, but it is also a dynamic force that sends us out on a mission to continue the life and the work of the Risen Christ.

Mayonnaise Sunday - May 23

Next Sunday, May 23 is Mayonnaise Sunday. The LA Catholic Worker Community would like the St. Cyril's parishioners to know that without their generous support and gifts of "Mayo," they would not be able to help those in need. Envelopes are available at the entrances to the Church.

Today's Readings

First Reading — Jesus tells the disciples that they will be witnesses to the ends of the earth (Acts 1:1-11).

Psalm — God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord (Psalm 47).

Second Reading — May the Father of glory give you a Spirit of wisdom and revelation (Ephesians 1:17-23) or Hebrews 9:24-28; 10:19-23.

Gospel — The disciples, witnesses to all the events of Christ's life, were blessed by him as he parted from them and was taken up to heaven (Luke 24:46-53).

The Road To God

There is but one road to lead us to God:
humility. All other ways would only lead astray, even were they fenced in with all virtues.
—Nicolas Boileau-Despreaux

God Grant Me The Serenity.....

God, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, the courage to change the things I can and wisdom to know the difference.

Living one day at a time, enjoying one moment at a time and accepting hardship as the path to peace. Taking, as Jesus did, this sinful world as it is and not as I would have it.

Trusting that You will make all things right if I surrender to Your will, so that I may be reasonably happy in this life and supremely happy with You in the next. Amen.
