Today's Readings
First Reading — Abraham bargains with God to spare the city (Genesis 18:20-32).
Psalm — Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me (Psalm 138).
Second Reading — Buried with Christ in baptism, we were also raised with him; all our transgressions are forgiven (Colossians 2:12-14).
Gospel — Jesus speaks of God's sure response to those who pray (Luke 11:1-13).

Listening to God
 Familiarity, in the case of the Lord's Prayer, probably hasn't bred contempt in most of us, but it certainly can breed a kind of inertia. The words we speak in prayer run the same risks as all our other human words: they can be spoken hastily, thoughtlessly, carelessly. In a manner parallel to the words we say in the Lord's Prayer "forgive us as we forgive others," today might be the day to listen to the Lord's Prayer with newly attentive ears.
 Let us learn from the example of Luke's Jesus, who would not instruct others how to pray until he himself had been a man of prayer. Moreover, listen carefully to the follow-up Jesus gives for the prayer itself. In our quick-fix society we must heed the call to persistence. In a world that puts glib explanations on difficult situations we must continue to seek and knock. In our all-too-humanness, we must be open to the patience, grace and wisdom of the will of God. Do we want the Lord to listen to our voice? Maybe we can start by listening to God's.

 With confidence, O Lord, we ask that eternal rest be granted to Antoinette (Toni) Hietpas and Sid Buenafe, Jr. Let the perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Lord, Use Me
 Lord, I enter into this day giving all my love to You, bringing praise and glory with all I say and do. The sun is warm upon my face, reminding me of Your love, as I put my life into Your hands, sending praise to You above. It is the desire of my heart to serve You every day. Use me as a willing vessel my whole life through I pray. Amen.
